

Open Seminar

A Comparison of Subjective Well-being of Children between Japan and Finland

Time: Monday, March 18, 2019 18:00 to 20:00

Place: The department of education, Nagoya University, the 3rd lecture room

Part 1: 18:00 to 19:00 Open seminar

A Comparison of Subjective Well-being of Children between Japan and Finland

Presentation Japan: Yuki Ninomiya (Graduate School of Education and Human Development, D3)
Finland: Soili & Esko Keskinen (Emeritus professor of Turku University)

* Although data and an announcement are English, questions and answers are with an interpreter.

Part 2: 19:00 to 20:00 Round-table talk with light meal (free)

Talk about the country and elementary school in Finland, exhibition of related goods. Free discussion

Participating application: e43195 b@cc.nagoya-u.ac.jp (Kondo)
matsumoto.mariko@g.mbox.nagoya-u.ac.jp (Mariko Matsumoto 211 laboratory)

* Please give me an application by the previous day.

Anyone who are interested in Finland and about subjective well-being of children— please participate energetically.

Inquiry contact: Nagoya University Psychological Support & Research Center for Human Development

Michiko Kondo Telephone : 052 (789) 2658

Fax : 052 (789) 2651

e-mail : e43195b@cc.nagoya-u.ac.jp

